

EMMA E14

EMMA E14 IMPACT ON INDIVIDUAL LEVEL

Staffs' mobility results

Thang Long University

Contents

- 1 Staff Exchange - Summary
- 2 Staff's mobility – results
- 3 Conclusion

36 staff grantee:

- 23 grantees submitted their reports
- 6 staffs have uploaded nothing
- 7 beneficiaries have only submitted their work plans
- Notably, there is no grantee to/from Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli – Italy.

Staff Exchange - Summary

Grantees' report availability by exchange region

	Region
	Asia-EU	EU-Asia
Number of grantees	17	19
Number of reports	15	8
%	88%	42%

Grantees broken down by cohort

	Cohort
	1	3
Number of grantees	31	5

Grantees broken down by gender

	Gender
	F	M
Number of grantees	19	17

Staff Exchange - Summary

Grantees broken down by target groups

	Target group
	TG1	TG2
Number of grantees	33	3

Grantees broken down by exchange flows

	Flows
	A-E	E-A
Number of grantees	17	19

Grantees broken down by length of stay

	Length of stay
	1M	2M	3M
Number of grantees	22	12	2

1. Opening the possibility of collaboration on academic research

- Building a basis for further cooperation and scientific exchange (Bader Georg - BTU-QNU).
- Preparing papers to be published on internal journal (Curanovic Alicja - UW-ADMU)
- Conducting research collaboration:
 - ✓ culture heritage report (Shwe San Nan - YTU-UE),
 - ✓ knowledge of water management solutions (Hulsman Helena - TG2-YTU),
 - ✓ manuscript for a journal (Perez Maria Socorro - ADMU-UW),
 - ✓ contemporary relations between India and Southeast Asia countries (Jaskólska Aleksandra - UW-NUOL)

2. Exchanging knowledge and sharing experiences

- Participation in two projects between UD and Microsoft (Vo Trung Hung - UD-UE)
- Getting agreement on establishing mechanisms of information exchange between the faculties of political science of 2 university about scientific event (Curanovic Alicja - UW-ADMU)
- Lectures and seminars delivered on new trends in Physics (Trippenbach Marek & Cao Long Van - UW-UD)
- Beneficiaries' participation in meetings with international offices at the host institutions (Rim Beanbonyka - RUPP-BTU and Lai Hoai Phuong - TLU-UW, etc.)
- Improve English curriculums and adapt curriculums (Souvannasy- NUOIL –LBUS)

Staff's motivation - results

3. Promoting future exchanges of students and staffs (both academic and administrative)

- ❖ Getting agreements about further exchange of students on Master level, as well as PhD and post- doctoral (Vo Trung Hung-UD&UE, BTU Bader Georg & QNU,)
- ❖ Getting insights into how different programs are delivered at different institutions in order to prepare mobility offers (TLU-UNS (Nguyen Thi Phuong Thanh), UD-UE (Vo Trung Hung) and QNU-UE (Phung Nguyen Tien, Nguyen Thi Hanh))
- ❖ Setting up contacts(PSU-UW (Leelakriangsak Montira)) to facilitate the exchanges

3. Promoting future exchanges of students and staffs (continue)

- ❖ Creating possibility of potential mobility (compatibility of programs and transfer of credits) (QNU-UE (Phung Nguyen Tien, Nguyen Thi Hanh) and UW-ADMU (Curanovic Alicja), Souvannasy-Nuol & LBUS)
- ❖ Advancing student exchange for the next cohort (TLU-UNS (Nguyen Thi Phuong Thanh))
- ❖ Preparing exchange of academic staffs (BTU-ADMU (Andaya Suzzane Ann))

4. Promoting the collaboration between institutions in Asia and Europe.

- ❖ A number of agreements have been signed, e.g. a framework agreement between CITI and UNS (Parisot Denis) or the MOU signed between UE and UD (Prof.Vo Trung Hung) & Fernandes Sara), UNS& YTU (Mya San Wai)
- ❖ Opening the possibility of joint programs.
 - Potential Portuguese language course was discussed (Fernandes Sara - UE-UD).
- ❖ Many discussions about future cooperation between the A-E universities
 - About bilateral e-library(Khammanovong- Nuol and UW),
 - About future cooperation (Souvanasy-Nuoil and LBUS)

4. Promoting the collaboration between institutions in Asia and Europe (continue).

- ❖ Notably, UNS and UD signed an MOU on a cooperation to establish Danang International Institute of Technology (DNIIT-Danang International Institute of Technology) with two divisions, following the staff exchange (Le Thanh Nhan).
 - A Center for Research and Innovation (MIRE), in charge of collaboration on applicable and creative research, exchange of scientific information and technology transfer;
 - A Center for Training and Scientific Information (NiceCAMPUS), in charge of cooperation in training, teaching, as well as scientific communication.

5. Developing personal and professional self.

- E.g. Andaya Suzzane Ann - ADMU-BTU and Curanovic Alicja - UW-ADMU

CONCLUSSION

EMMA E14:

The achievements of staff's mobility

- shows the positive impact of EMMA E14 at individual level.
- contributes an indispensable part to help the objective of EMMA E14 to be successfully achieved, namely:
 - to promote exchange programs for individual mobility flows of academics from Partner Countries
 - to establish, develop and strengthen the cooperation between institutions in Asia and Europe.

Thank you