

Mobility offers University of Évora

EMMA-East 2014, cohort 2015

Focus on:

- Informatics
- World heritage
- Mathematics

Lesser extent:

- International relations
- Arts
- Diverse

Informatics, about 20 proposals

Several Ph-D proposals D18 in diverse areas, from technically advanced to modelling:

- Treatment of information
- Big data
- Image processing
- New themes will be proposed

Masters thesis proposals in the same area

World heritage, related to Évora's Unesco Chair

- Proper world heritage, including “intangible” culture.
- Crossover to related areas:

Urbanism

Economy and management related

Informatics

Mathematics

- Mathematics projects related mainly to
 - stochastics,
 - dynamics
 - optimization
- Resulting in particular from Évora-staff mobilities to Laos and Vietnam.

Other types of mobilities

- International relations: proper international relations, strong research group in Évora, staff mobilities at Foreign Office, related to management of Programs, and at various research institutes to prepare further cooperation
- Architecture, pursuing a mobility flow mainly from Bangla-Desh.
- Diverse mobilities in Arts Faculty
- Remaining, mostly science related.